MESSAGE

On Thursday, November 28, 2013 around 12:03 am, Rockford Police and Rockford Fire were sent to the area of McFarland Rd and Spring Brook Rd. for a vehicle versus a tree serious injury traffic accident.

Initial investigation revealed a 23 year-old female was driving southbound towards the intersection and lost control, striking a tree and causing severe damage to the vehicle. This female was extricated by Rockford Fire and transported to a local hospital in critical condition with life-threatening injuries.

The Rockford Police Department's Traffic Investigations unit will be conducting the follow up investigation.
